The Defense Central Index of Investigations (DCII), a Department of Defense (DOD) index to security, applicant, and criminal investigation files was checked through a representative of that agency on 10/19/82, by SC [redacted] and revealed information regarding the appointee is located in the files of the Defense Investigative Service (DIS), Fort Holabird, Maryland. b6 b7C

Review of appointee's DIS file conducted on 11/2/82 and disclosed that Fortier was the subject of a favorable Background Investigation completed on 4/13/72, by the U. S. Army Intelligence Command (USAINTC), which was conducted in connection with his Military duties in the U. S. Army.

According to the file, the appointee was also the subject of a Background Investigation by DIS and completed on 7/18/75, during which no unfavorable information was developed during its active investigation.

Contained in the file is a Statement of Personal History (DD Form 398), executed and signed by the appointee on 5/6/75, on which, under Item 18, concerning arrests and traffic violations, he listed the following:

"Speeding Violation:

85 mph in 70 mph
zone on I-70 West near Eaton, Ohio on way back to college 9/29/69
Forfeited Bond of $30.00."

Planning Staff, as FSR-1 at $67,536
per annum (limited to $50,112.50)
For a period not to exceed incumbency of Earl D. Wolfowitz or three years, whichever occurs first. A non-career position.

[] Policy Planning Staff, advised that he has known the appointee professionally and personally for about two years. He said that they both worked on the "Hill" prior to coming to the State Department. He said that the appointee is extremely hardworking, conscientious, decent, and completely loyal to his country. He said he has a real love for his country. He said his appointment to the National Security Council (NSC) will be a great asset to that organization.

b6
b7C

[] Policy Planning Staff, advised he has known the appointee professionally since he came to the State Department in 1981. He said that he has enjoyed a great reputation on the staff for his intelligence, hard work and dedication to this country's problems. He is an expert in several areas including the Near East, Energy Security, Terrorism, and nuclear non-proliferation and has been active in helping direct the State Department's communication of these problems to the country and world.

[] strongly recommended the appointee for a position of the NSC.

b6
b7C

[] USA Member, Policy, Planning Staff, advised he has known the appointee for over a year primarily as a professional associate at the State Department. He said he has the greatest respect for the appointee in character, loyalty, reputation and associates. He said he enjoys a great reputation at State and should be an asset to the NSC.

[] strongly recommended him for NSC employment and White House access.

b6
b7C

[] advised she has worked for the appointee for almost two years. During that time he has been a good supervisor and a pleasure to work for. She said she has never seen nor heard anything derogatory or adverse concerning the appointee's character, loyalty, reputation or associates.

She said she could recommend him for a position of trust and confidence with the NSC.

[] advised she has known the appointee for almost two years. She said that she has worked with him on crash overnight projects when he was helping write speeches. She said he is extremely hardworking, dedicated and conscientious. She said he has never exhibited any sign of disloyalty, dishonesty or personal problems. She said she could easily recommend him for continued Federal service at the White House.

b6
b7C

[] Policy Planning Staff, advised he has known this appointee for four or five years. He said both worked on the "Hill", he in the House and himself in the Senate. He said that their paths frequently crossed and he began forming a good opinion of the appointee.

even before they both came to State. Since then he has been reinforced in his judgement of the appointee's good character, loyalty, reputation and associates. He said he is a hardworking, honest, and extremely dedicated public servant. He strongly recommended him for a position on the NSC.

[redacted] Policy Planning Staff, advised he has known the appointee for several years prior to his State Department employment. He said he is also a personal friend. During the past years the appointee has always impressed him as an intelligent, mature, dedicated and patriotic public servant who has always acted in the best interests of the United States.

b7C

[redacted] said that he has never seen nor heard anything derogatory concerning the appointee and strongly recommended him for a position of trust and confidence at the NSC.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that he has known the appointee for approximately one year on a professional basis. He said that the appointee helped him on his speeches, supplying him with dates and other input. He said he was a conscientious and dedicated public employee and he was certain of his good character, honesty, loyalty and reputation. He strongly recommended the appointee for a position on the NSC.

The National Security Council
17th and Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D. C.

[redacted] to the NSC Secretary, advised the appointee will be detailed from the State Department on November 1, 1982, as a Staff Assistant to the Advisor.

b7C

[redacted] NSC, advised that he had only a superficial social acquaintance with appointee. He stated that he believed that [redacted] who is currently out of the country knows him better. [redacted] said that he had nothing negative to report concerning his suitability but declined recommendation due to his limited knowledge.

On October 27, 1982, Special Agent [redacted] [redacted] contacted the following persons regarding the appointee, Donald Robert Fortier:

b6
b7C

[redacted] said the appointee and his wife moved next door three to four years ago. He said they are nice, quiet, respectable neighbors and he has only spoken with the appointee to say hello to in passing each other. He knew of nothing adverse about the appointee and was unable to furnish anything additional.

b7C

[redacted] said the appointee and his wife have lived next door to her since April, 1979. She said the appointee works for the State Department and his wife works for someone at the Rayburn Building in Washington, D. C. She said they are a nice young couple and work very hard. She said they leave early in the morning and return late in the evening. She further advised that the appointee has not had much contact with the neighbors or he is seldom home, even on weekends. She knew of nothing derogatory in nature about the appointee's conduct or habits and had no reason to question his character, associates, reputation or loyalty. She recommended him for a position of trust and confidence with the U. S. Government.

CREDIT AND POLICE AGENCIES

Special Clerk [] caused a search to be made of the files of the Credit Bureau, Incorporated, Washington, D.C., and was advised on October 28, 1982, that the files contained a satisfactory credit record for the appointee.

b6
b7C

On October 29, 1982, a query was made in the Washington Area Law Enforcement computer (WALES) and it was determined that no record was located for MPD concerning the applicant or relatives.

It is to be noted that at all times an indefinite number of unidentified records may not be in the computer and not available for review.

On October 27, 1982, Special Clerk [] determined that no record was contained in the Department of Transportation, Bureau of Motor Vehicle Services, Government of the District of Columbia files concerning the appointee or relatives.

*Announcement of Donald R. Fortier as the Principal Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs.
December 10, 1985*

The President today announced that Donald R. Fortier will serve as the principal Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs. He will succeed John M. Poindexter.

Mr. Fortier joined the National Security Council staff in September 1982, as Director for Western Europe and NATO. In June 1983, he assumed the position of Senior Director for Political-Military Affairs and Special Assistant to the President. In December of 1983, he was appointed to the rank of Deputy Assistant to the President with responsibility for policy development.

From February 1981 until joining the National Security Council staff, Mr. Fortier served as Deputy Director for Policy Planning at the Department of State. He received the Department's Superior Honor Award for his work in that position.

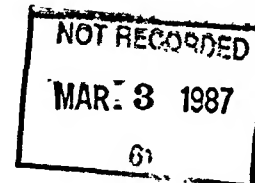

Prior to his service in the Department of State, Mr. Fortier served for 5 years as a senior member of the professional staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Prior to joining the government, Mr. Fortier also worked as a consultant to the Rand Corp. on national security issues.

Mr. Fortier received a B.A. from Miami University in Oxford, OH, and his M.A. in political science and international relations at the University of Chicago. He was the recipient of a Ford Foundation fellowship in Chicago and served as the executive administrator of the university's symposium on "The Role of the Expert in a Democracy."

Mr. Fortier is married, has one child, and resides in Bethesda, MD. He was born January 9, 1947, in Columbus, OH.
